

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD WINNERS

Congratulations to the 2017 Town of Cottesloe Citizen of the Year award winners. Winners were announced on Australia Day at an event held at the Civic Centre's Main Lawn.

Citizen of the Year was awarded to Mr Robert Rowell, who served on Council for more than 28 years. During this time he was instrumental in the introduction of recycling waste and of redeveloping Napoleon Street to one way, plus was the instigator of Sculpture by the Sea. Mr Rowell also made a significant contribution to the Western Australian Local Government Association (WALGA) and was awarded life membership. He served on Curtin Aged Persons Home for over 15 years, many as Chairman, and is a tireless advocate for the community.

Citizen of the Year Youth was awarded to Eliza Jackson. Eliza has been a volunteer at Cottesloe Surf Life Saving Club since 2011 and became one of the Club's youngest Patrol Captains in 2015 at the age of 18. She is also a prominent member of the Club's Youth Committee.

Active Citizenship – Community Group of the Year was awarded to Lady Lawley Cottage in recognition of their continuous and dedicated work. Lady Lawley Cottage supports children and young adults living with a disability and disadvantage, and their families.

Town of Cottesloe would like to congratulate the 2017 Citizen of the Year award winners on this significant achievement and thanks them for their continued contribution to the community.

SCULPTURE BY THE SEA

This year marks the 13th annual Sculpture by the Sea in Cottesloe. Sculpture by the Sea will be held from Friday 3 to Monday 20, March. Last year, an estimated 220,000 visitors came to our beautiful beach to enjoy this wonderful exhibition, and we expect this year to be just as popular. Please be mindful that there will be extra pedestrians on the footpaths and additional cars on the roads during this time.

Sculpture by the Sea is a wonderful event that showcases the beauty of Cottesloe Beach and we hope our community takes the opportunity to experience this fantastic free sculpture exhibition.

Horizon by Lucy Humphrey is just one of the amazing sculptures on show at this year's Sculpture by the Sea exhibition. Photo by Clyde Yee.

Winner of the Community Group of the Year award - Lady Lawley client services manager Lyn Edmondson and her niece Jana Edmondson with Mayor Jo Dawkins and Australia Day Ambassador Matthew Pavlich.

2017 Town of Cottesloe Citizen of the Year award winners with Mayor Jo Dawkins and Australia Day Ambassador Matthew Pavlich.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

Council Agenda Forums are held on the third Tuesday of the month at 6pm and Council Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 7pm at Cottesloe Civic Centre, 109 Broome Street, Cottesloe. Agendas are available at the Civic Centre or on our website. The next Agenda Forum is on Tuesday, 21 February and the next Council Meeting is on Tuesday, 28 February.